International Education Programs at Kobe University 2021/2022

At Kobe University we are aiming for a truly international campus environment by making our academic programs more accessible to people from around the world. The degree programs listed below are all taught in English, enabling students to acquire a masters or PhD full degree qualification in Japan without advanced Japanese language abilities. We also offer English-taught summer schools and other short-term programs. For more details about these short courses, please see the following link: https://www.kobe-u.ac.jp/en/study_in_kobe/short_term/summer_school.html
