

Collaborative Workshop between Trier University and Kobe University

Space and Time in Modern Civilization

Kobe University Brussels European Center, 5-6 November 2016

Programme

Saturday, 5 November 2016

- 10:30 Greeting and Introduction (Hiroko Masumoto, Kobe University)
- 11:00 Thomas RUFNER (Trier University, Law):
Begegnungen zwischen Common Law und Ius Commune im Mittelalter und der frühen Neuzeit
- 11:45 Noriyuki Inoue (Kobe University, Law):
Japanese Fairy Tales and Constitutional Rights in Japan: 3 Taros and One Example of the Innovation of CM in Japan
- 12:30 Lunch
- 14:30 Nobuo Kazashi (Kobe University, Philosophy: Nature as “Human Milieu” :
Japanese Philosophers’ Encounter with Europe
- 15:15 Kiyomitsu Yui (Kobe University, Sociology): 'Lost and Found' in Translation in Case of Pop Culture and Visuality
- 16:00 Coffee break
- 16:15 Hiroko Masumoto (Kobe University, German literature):
Multiculturalism in Switzerland and “Spiritual National Defense” in the 1940s

Sunday, 6 November 2016

- 10:00 Anna GAVYRILUK (Trier University, Russian literature):
Social Media and Contemporary Political Poetry in Ukraine
- 10:45 Alexander KARTOZIA (Tbilisi State University, German linguistics):
The Linguistic Shaping and Re-shaping of the ‘Fantastic City’ : The Georgian Cultural Scene in the First Third of the 20th Century

- 11:30 Valerij Grecko (Kobe University, Russian literature):
Multilinguality and the Problem of National Language
- 12:15 Lunch
- 14:15 Marc Oliver Rieger (Trier University, Business administration):
Cultural differences in time preferences — an economic's point of view
- 15:00 Taiji Hagiwara (Kobe University, Economics): Cross-border transaction and economic integration
- 15:45 Coffee break
- 16:00 Closing discussion