

International Workshop on Humanities

New Perspectives in Japanese Studies Part 2

Kobe University Brussels European Center, 18-19 November 2017

Graduate School of Humanities, Kobe University

Programme

Saturday, 18 November 2017

- 9:30 Greeting and Introduction (Hiroko Masumoto, Kobe University)
- 9:50 Presentation 1: Jörg Quenzer (University of Hamburg): The Medium and the Message: Thoughts on the Study of Japanese Manuscript Cultures
- 10:30 Presentation 2: Hiroko Masumoto (Kobe University): Atomic Bomb as a Literary Topos: Intertextuality and Paratext
- 11:10 Coffee Break
- 11:30 Presentation 3: Andreas Regelsberger (University of Trier): Politics, protest and poetry: Current Issues in Japan's Foreign Policy and their Reflections in Poetry
- 12:10 Presentation 4: Hiroyuki Nakahata (Kobe University): Philosophical and Literary "legs en la disparition" ? - Hajime Tanabe and his Notes on Mallarmé
- 12:50 Lunch
- 14:30 Presentation 5: Marco Zappa (University of Venice): Japan as Vietnam's "favorite development partner? A Recipient's Perspectives on the Japanese Grant Scholarship for Human Resource Development (JDS) and HRD cooperation
- 15:10 Presentation 6: Shin Okawachi (Kobe University): Illustrating Cosmopolitization: The Formation of Cosmopolitics through Complexities of Sub-Politics

15:50 Coffee Break

16:10 Presentation 7: Kantaro Ohashi (Kobe University): Modern Forms of Japanese Nostalgia: the Case of Ango Sakaguchi

16:50 Presentation 8: Kiyomitsu Yui (Kobe University): H.G. Wells and NAGAI Kafu : Modernities in Comparative Perspective

17:30 Roundtable Discussion

Sunday, 19 November 2017

9:30 Presentation 9: Léo Messerschmid (University of Hamburg) Japan as the Land of Dainichi — A Taimitsu View of the Japanese Topography in the Keiran shūyō shū

10:10 Presentation 10: Dalibor Klikovic (University of Belgrade): Once Again on the Notion of Kokoro : A Comparison with the Meaning of the Heart in the Eastern Orthodox Thought

10:50 Coffee Break

11:10 Presentation 11: Maria Telegina (University of Oxford): Toward Understanding Time and Space Concepts in Modern Japanese

11:50 Presentation 12: Yuji Ishiyama (Kobe University): "Co-existence" of the Two Major Sino-Japanese Systems(GO-ON and KAN-ON)

12:30 Lunch

14:10 Presentation 13: Bjarke Frellesvig (University of Oxford): From Preverbal to Postverbal in the Early History of the Japanese Language: A Look at Some Word Order Changes in Japanese

15:00 Closing Discussion

