

2018 UNESCO Chair Integrated Summer
Program on Gender and Vulnerability in Disaster Recovery Support
Gadjah Mada University
10 September 10:00~10:45; 11:00~11:45

Popoki, peace, disaster, inclusion and diversity

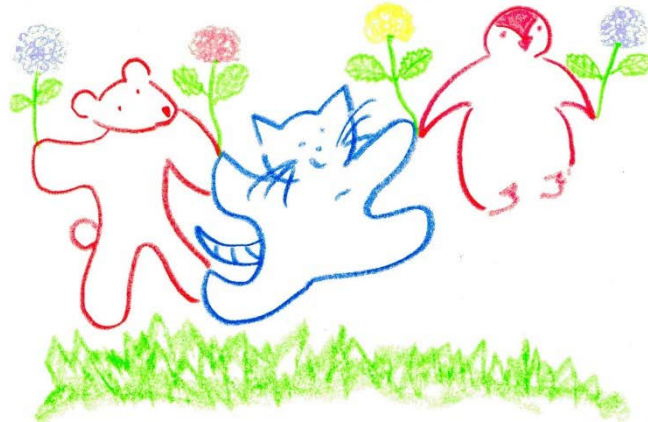

Ronni Alexander
Director, Kobe University Gender Equality Office
Professor, Graduate School of International Cooperation Studies
Director, Popoki Peace Project

alexroni@kobe-u.ac.jp

It was supposed to be this...
But instead it was about
Popoki's Friendship Story Glossary

Part 1

Popoki, peace, disaster and inclusion

New Content and Objectives

Content

- Introduce Popoki Peace Project
- Poga
- Popoki Theater
- Introduce Popoki Friendship Story Project
- Draw

Objectives

- Learn why the glossary was made
- Think about ways to use it and think about communication
- Understand disaster in the context of peace

Talking and listening in a foreign language is hard!

- Communication can be hard! So.....
- Listen with:
 - Respect
 - Caring
 - Patience
- Speak with:
 - Respect
 - Caring
 - Patience
- Respect privacy and silence

I study, teach and work for peace. Popoki helps me in my work for peace

I like stories and peace!
Visit me on Facebook!

Hello,
I'm Popoki!
Nice to meet you! Let's be friends!

Popoki Peace Project
<http://popoki.cruisejapan.com>

The Popoki Peace Project (est. 2006): We can't create what we can't imagine

- Critical thinking
- Critical creativity
- Critical expression
 - Whole body
 - All the senses
 - All the emotions
- Imagine peace →
make peace

What is peace?

- Peace is:
 - Lack of all kinds of violence
 - Rooted in justice
 - Full opportunities for all
- Peace must be made and maintained
 - Everyone has a role to play
- Peace is also a right
 - UN Declaration on the Right to Peace (2016.12)
 - The right to peace includes gender equality

Inclusion and Diversity

- Diversity is what you are or have
 - Identity, affiliation, etc.
 - Identity is not necessarily visible
- Diversity focuses on difference
 - Counts groups: how many women, etc.
 - Emphasizes equal representation
- Inclusion is deliberate act of welcoming difference and making diversity work
 - Make everyone feel safe
 - Make everyone feel accepted
 - Make everyone feel equal

Peace, inclusion and disaster

- Peace means:
 - Eliminating all kinds of violence
 - Promoting equality, equity and justice
- Inclusion means:
 - Making a place for everyone
 - Learning new ways to communicate
- Peaceful societies are more resilient to disaster than less peaceful societies
 - Less violence
 - More inclusive
 - More diverse ways for communication

Let's try Poga! (Popoki's yoga!)

ポーポキ劇場

Popoki Theatre

ポーポキの本を少し読もう！

The Solution:

Popoki's Friendship Story Project

- A very long cloth! (45cm x 500cm)
- Colored felt pens
- Drawing freely
- Everyone can participate

The name:

- ✓ Each drawing has a story
- ✓ Many express what the artist can't or doesn't say
- ✓ When people draw, they share their stories
- ✓ When they share, they can begin to become friends

Popoki's Friendship Story

2012.1

2011.8

2013.2

Drawing, seeing your drawings later on, drawing again...
Re-living Kobe, re-living Tohoku, moving forward

How can Popoki be more inclusive?

- Popoki Friendship Story Project Glossary!
 - Allows communication without fluent Japanese/English
 - Promotes connection
- How can you be inclusive and respect diversity if you do not speak the same language?
- Do you have to speak the same language for disaster support?

THANK YOU VERY MUCH!

URL: <http://popoki.cruisejapan.com> e-mail: ronniandpopoki@gmail.com