

Workshop “Vulnerability and Disaster Resilience” Schedule

Time: 1-4 May, 2019

Venue: Mae Fah Luang University, Chiangrai, Thailand

- 1 May Arrival of participants
- Welcome dinner at Ruen Rim Nam Restaurant
- 2 May Morning session at Mok Luang Room
- 9:00-9:15 Background of the project
- Prof. Ronni Alexander, Kobe University
- 9:15-9:25 Opening Speech
- Assoc. Prof. Dr. Siriporn Wajjwalku, Network for International Development Cooperation, Thammasat University
- 9:25-9:30 Group photo
- 9:30-10:15 Keynote Speech
- Key Issues: “Disaster Resilience Effort in Thailand and ASEAN”
- Ms. Pannapa Na Nan, Foreign Relations Officer, Research and International Cooperation Bureau, Department of Disaster
Prevention and Mitigation (DDPM), Network for International Development Cooperation, Thammasat University
- 10:15-10:30 Q and A
- 10:45-11:45 Presentation from each Partner: What is each partner’s
RESEARCH PLAN?
1. Prof. Dr. Ronni Alexander
- “Identifying issues in disaster risk, vulnerability and resilience from a gender and peace studies perspective”

2. Prof. Dr. Jin Long, Lu, Assoc. Prof. Dr. Hui-Lung Yu and Assoc. Prof. Dr. Jyh-Shyen Sun, National Kaohsiung University of Science and Technology

“Rural women’s role in disaster resilience and risk adaptation options”

3. Assist. Prof. Dr. Tan Kok Weng, Universiti Tunku Abdul Rahman (UTAR)

“Development of Climate Hazards Decision Support System for Cameron Highlands, Malaysia”

4. Dr. Wanwalee Inpin, Mae Fah Luang University

“The Disaster Occupational Recovery at Local Level: Policy Direction and Practical Guidelines in Chiang Rai Province”

Moderator: Assoc. Prof. Dr. Siriporn Wajjwalku

11:45-12:15 Discussion

12:15-13:15 Lunch

Afternoon session at Meeting Room 414

13:15-14:15 Continued the presentation:

1. Assoc. Prof. Dr. Junko Okada, Kobe University

“Gender in Disaster from the social scientific perspective”

2. Assoc. Prof. Dr. Kuo-Tsung Tseng, National Kaohsiung University of Science and Technology

“Integrating Elderly Care System with Set-top Box for Enhancing Social Capital”

3. Mr. Hafiz Amirrol, MERCY Malaysia

“Inclusive DRR and Resilience Building Strategies from the Civil Society Perspective”

4. Dr. Thanikun Chantra, Mae Fah Luang University

“Voluntarism and Disaster Resilience at Local Level in Thailand: Institutional Design”

Moderator: Assoc. Prof. Dr. Siriporn Wajjwalku

- 14:15-14:45 Discussion
- 14:45-15:00 Break
- 15:00-16:30 Brainstorming on development of research proposal based on the presentation in the morning session
- Moderator: Assoc. Prof. Dr. Siriporn Wajjwalku
- 18:00-20:00 Dinner
- 3 May Morning session at Meeting Room 414
- 9:00-9:45 Continued the presentation:
1. Ms. Maya Dania, Gadjah Mada University
“Mainstreaming Gender into Disaster Recovery Policy and Practice: The case study of Post-earthquake in JogJakarta, Indonesia”
 2. Ms. Rani Juwitasari, Gadjah Mada University
“Local Government Initiative Practice o Post Tsunami in Coastal Community in West Java, Indonesia”
 3. Ms. Uki Noviana, Gadjah Mada University
“Gender Sensitivity in Disaster Management in Indonesia”
- 9:45-11:00 Research Proposal
1. Joint Research Proposal- Collective Proposal(JSPS, JICA)
 2. Individual Research Proposal-Institutional or Personal Proposal
- Chair of the session: Assoc. Prof. Dr. Siriporn Wajjwalku
- 11:00-11:15 Break

11:15-12:00 Source of Funding

1. JSPS(Kobe University as a leader)
2. Partners University
3. JICA (Mae Fah Luang University as a leader)

Chair of the session: Assoc. Prof. Dr. Siriporn Wajjwalku

12:00-13:00 Lunch

Afternoon session

13:00-17:00 Excursion: Visiting the post-earthquake area in Chiang Rai and discuss with local authorities and people

18:00-12:00 Dinner

4 May Departure of participants